DEDICATION

TO THE spirit of athletics we dedicate this book; for its aid in the development of companionship and sportsmanship among the students. Not only has it created a common bond of friendship among us by its various activities, but also it has done much to raise the ideals and better the character of those participating in them. May it continue to aid those in M. H. S. to promote a spirit of loyalty as it has in the past years.

P. C. Emmons

Superintendent of Public Schools

MR. EMMONS came to Mishawaka on August 1, 1921. He has greatly aided and enlarged our public school system in his superintendency. The city teaching staff was 107 when he came. It is now 142. Improved school organization has been brought about by establishing Junior High Schools at the Battell and Main Schools. This takes care of the steadily increasing attendance. Mr. Emmons also has supervised the building of the High School, Logan Street School, LaSalle School, and a portable on North Merrifield avenue.

C. C. Cauble

Mr. Cauble came to Mishawaka High School from Brazil, Indiana, in 1921. He has proved himself to be a most able, energetic principal, and is very well liked by the student body, faculty, and townspeople. Working with untiring effort for the development of a finer and greater high school, he has inaugurated many new things which make the school better fitted to aid the student, both in an intellectual and recreational way. Establishment of a board of control, a high school band, noon-hour entertainment, and a regular program of interesting assemblies, has all been carried out under his supervision, along with the development of a more extensive trade course with adequate equipment. We hope that he will always remain in Mishawaka and guide the destinies of our high school.

The class of '28 has been one of the most energetic and enthusiastic bodies the school has ever known. Being one of the few classes able to organize as Freshmen, they chose Thoburn Wiant as president.

In the Sophomore year, Ellis Airgood, was elected president. Two one-act plays, "Three Pills in a Bottle", and "A Late Delivery", were given and several parties enjoyed.

In the early part of the Junior year, Miss Alexander, who had been head sponsor, left school, and was ably succeeded by Miss Stonecipher, present chief sponsor. The Juniors presented as their class play "The Lottery Man", in three acts, and added to their list of accomplishments the most striking social event of the year, the Prom.

The class sponsors are: Miss Stonecipher, chief sponsor; Miss Dunn, Miss Stearns, Mr. Amos and Mr. Middleton.

THE CLASS OF '29 entered as "Freshies" in much the same way as other classes have, dazed, eager, and confused as well as green.

Since the sophomore year was the beginning of class organization, it was also the beginning of enthusiasm in the class. During the first semester the party was the most important event, but the honor of being the champion of the interclass basketball tournament was the most exciting and thrilling happening in the class history.

Judging from the successfulness of the three one-act plays, "Red Carnations", "The Man in the Bowler Hat", and "The Step-mother", this class also has dramatic ability.

The sponsors are Miss Moist, Miss Little, Miss Beckman and Mr. Dahl.

COACH STEELE

Coach Frank M. Steele has done more to put Mishawaka, and especially M. H. S. on the map of Indiana than any other man in the history of the city. Steele, although always the "boss", never was a tyrant or a slave driver. His electric personality imbues all who come in contact with him with the spirit of energy, and his wonderful knowledge of football, gained him the name of the "Rockne of high schools".

The fellows are always ready to work for Coach, as they fondly call him, and his word is always law. No matter what he says, to them it is always right. Truly, the coach can do no wrong. We hope that we will have him with us for many years to come.

A LOT OF CREDIT for the wonderful play of the line, both offensively and defensively, is due to Russell Arndt, a graduate of Notre Dame university. He came out night after night, sacrificing his own time and money, to help whip the line into shape. While Coach Steele was working with the backfield, "Rus", with an old football suit on, was showing the line the fine points of heady play. We can't thank "Rus" enough for his good work.

ARNDT

RUDDUCK

"FERRIE" WAS THE BOY who worked harder than all the team put together. Whenever any one wanted a new shoe lace, shoulder pads adjusted, feet taped, or legs rubbed, it was always, "Where, oh, where is Rudduck?" On the way to Peru there was not enough room in the bus so it was Rudduck and Curtis, the yell leader, who rode on top with the luggage. Managers as good as Rudduck are scarce.

For the second successive year, Mishawaka turned out an unbeaten team and this year we finished the season in a tie with Emerson high school of Gary for the Indiana high school Big Ten conference title. Each school was awarded a trophy like the one shown above. On it is engraved the reason for the awarding, the year awarded, the names of the twenty-one letter men, coach and student manager, and the scores of the conference games played by Mishawaka. We are hoping to win another like it next year.

KREITER

KLINE

HIMSCHOOT

KREITER—Capt.-elect 1927—A better man than "Fat" to fill the position of fullback could not be asked. Fast on his feet and possessing a mighty drive, he made Mishawaka's line smashes feared by all our opponents. In backing up the line and on defense against passes he was at his best, and it was his ability, coupled with his personality, that won him the captainey of next year's team.

KLINE—Capt.—Our blonde captain was one of our best and, by our opponents, most feared, linesmen. Breaking through time after time and dropping ball carriers in their tracks, he spelled failure for many a well planned play. He was a great leader and a favorite with the boys. The fact that he was mentioned on every all-state team is proof of his extraordinary ability as a player.

HIMSCHOOT—"Cy's" great strength and remarkable ability earned him the nomen of "the daddy of the line". "That big 40", as he was known to the spectators, seemed to be all over the field at once. He smashed up off-tackle drives and smeared end runs at will, and on offense he could always be depended upon to drive the opposing tackle out of the play. He was a great player and will be missed.

RODGERS

DOYLE

EMINGER

Rodgers—"Don" was the smallest man on the team; but size is no measure of ability. Aside from drop-kicking, in which he excelled, he passed, handled punts, and ran the team faultlessly. It was his talented right toe that created the slender one-point margin by which we defeated South Bend.

Doyle—Burt was the scoring ace of the season. He was an exceptional punter and passer, and had no equal as a ball carrier, once in a broken field. Every team that the Cavemen met were on to "get that demon, Doyle," but notwithstanding this fact, he was one of the sensations of the season in high school grid circles.

Eminger—"Al" is the original iron man. In spite of a fractured skull sustained in practice, he played through the entire encounter with South Bend and gave a very good account of himself. Aside from holding down right end on the first string, he subbed at quarter at the start of the season and carried back one of Lowell's punts for the first washes of the season.

DOLL

CHRISTIANSON

DENTINO

Doll—"Toad" as he is known to his friends, was one of the green men who developed rapidly. The coach said of him, "It takes Toad a long time to get goin', but he sure does ramble!" Doll was a master at the art of side-stepping and he sent many a tackle sliding upon his face by his deceptive fade-away. He will be back with the 1927 team.

Christianson—Coach Steele often said that "Christie" was the best little center he had ever had. "Fighting Bob" did his work at pivot position faultlessly, passing accurately and in defense he was in on every play. During the Elkhart game he showed his worth as a kicker, booting out several punts that soared over fifty yards down the field.

Dentino—"Little Joe", though diminutive in size, played a phenomenal game at tackle. He smashed up off-tackle plays, and threw the runner for losses time and again. A great deal more will be heard from him next year.

MOORE

FITZSIMMONS

ARATA

Moore—Fighting his way up from a third string berth, Don showed early in the season as one of the brightest prospects for the famed "stone wall". Injured in the first quarter of the game with the Bears, he returned to the fray in the second half and did double duty while South Bend smashed the line in a desperate effort to score.

Fitzsimmons—"Fitz", our big, fighting left tackle, was with "Cy", the mainstay of the left side of the line. He was one of the reasons why the newspapers spoke of "Mishawaka's impenetrable line". Although he was injured he put up a wonderful game at South Bend.

Arata—When Moore was laid out at South Bend it was Joe that Coach Steele called to take his place, and he did it in a manner that leaves no more to be said than. "He was good!" We are mighty sorry to see Arata go.

WEIST

HORSTMAN

DENMAN

WEIST—"Gordy" was second string end and quarterback and performed well in both positions. In the Laporte game he received a badly twisted knee while running interference and was unable to play in the Elkhart game. He was one of the best punters on the squad and his mile-high spirals caused opposing safety men much mental agony.

HORSTMANN—"Cowboy", as Roy was known to his team-mates, was one of the most savage plungers on the team. He played half or full with equal facility and in the Elkhart game proved his worth at left half while Doyle was on the sidelines. Aside from being an excellent punter, he was one of the fastest men Coach Steele had. Watch him next year!

DENMAN—It was in the South Bend game that Denman shone in full glory and gained the nickname of "Sparrow". He was here, there and everywhere at once like his namesake. It was his unfailing right arm that sent pass after pass into Doyle's arms for many long gains.

BOB HOUSE

RAY HOUSE

CERRI

Bob House—Bob gained the reputation of being the hardest tackler on the team at Goshen when he nearly cut a big Crimson back in halves by a flying tackle. Bob was also a good passer and an exceptional ball carrier. He is another man who will be sadly missed from next year's team.

Ray House—When Coach Steele needed a man to fill Al Eminger's position after the regular right end was enjured, he called on Ray. No matter how many times Ray was put down by the opposing interference he always came back thirsting for blood. We will be very sorry to lose Ray.

Cerri—"Bill" was our best left-handed passer and althongh he did not play in every game he showed his worth when called on. Fast, shifty, and hard hitting, he will be one of our best backs in the coming season. We are expecting you to make good, Bill!

BRECKEVELT

TERBUSH

BRECKEVELT—Julius was one of Steele's most valued utility men. Literally, "he could Indian block a whole team." Big and rangy, he was an ideal tackle and his lack of experience was all that kept him from a berth on the first eleven. We are sorry that he will not be eligible for varsity competition next year.

RILEY—"Bert" was another tackle who played the game and played it well. He was a man whom most teams would have been proud to have on their first eleven and it was only Dentino's speed and experience that kept Bert from the position of right tackle. Nice work, Riley!

TERBUSH—Working up from last year's fourth string to a letter, Bill was one of the most dogged fighters that Coach Steele had. He never knew when he was beaten and was always in there "cracking 'em" for all he was worth. He will be a valuable man next year.

Mishawaka 56, Lowell 0

M. H. S. dedicated its new football field by defeating Lowell, 56-0. Although only the first game of the season, the line seemed in good condition and the backfield furnished plenty of excitement for the fans. Coach Steele did a great deal of substituting throughout the game.

In the first quarter two touchdowns were made while Lowell was waking up.

Both touchdowns made in the second quarter were a result of spectacular playing by the backfield.

The second half began a zig-zagging back and forth until Eminger ran around the right end for a touchdown.

In the fourth quarter the Maroons began with a touchdown and ended with one. However, during the forty minutes of play the Mishawaka team was penalized 155 yards for offside, backfield in motion, and holding.

Perhaps the brilliant playing was due to the beautiful wreath of maroon and white flowers, in the shape of a horseshoe, which was presented to Captain Mark Kline.

Mishawaka 14, Marion 0

The Cavemen played their first conference game September 25, and gallantly defeated Marion, a strong southern team, 14-0.

Marion's defense was so good that the Steelemen were held within a few feet of scoring only to be turned away. The Marion aggressors were able to break the purple for only two touchdowns. The first came in the second quarter when Doyle smashed four yards off tackle and slid behind the goal line. In the fourth quarter Doyle threw a beautiful pass to Rodgers, who sprinted for another six points. Both of the points after touchdown were made by Rodgers.

Splendid defensive work by the line prevented the southerners from scoring, and fine interference paved the way to Mishawaka's victory.

Mishawaka 32, Goshen 0

The whistle blew, Mishawaka kicked to Goshen and four times the aggressors bent the Maroon line for a gain. The Cavemen held a "tea party", then. Each man took his position with a determined step and firm jaw. That ended Goshen's offensive and they studiously began defending their goal against the vigorous attack of the Cavemen.

At the end of the first quarter Mishawaka led Goshen, 6 to 0. Improving all the time, by the end of the second quarter the Cavemen had 19 points to their credit. Because the sweaters of both teams were so nearly alike, Mishawaka changed theirs for a bright green. The Christmas colors must have clashed because at the end of the quarter neither team had scored. However, in the fourth quarter they settled down and the final score was Mishawaka, 32 and Goshen, 0.

Mishawaka 42, Elwood 7

The Maroon-clad warriors traveled to Elwood and won their second conference encounter, returning to Mishawaka on the long end of a 42 to 7 score. The Elwood gridders obtained their lone counter when they ran back the opening kick-off of the second half, for a touchdown against the third team. They made good the extra point by a pass into the end zone. This bit of luck encouraged the Cavemen and when the first team was finally put in they ran up four touchdowns in the last eight minutes of play. Long dashes by Doyle and Doll were features of the game and Rodgers chalked up every point after touchdown. The Maroon victory was due to good interference and speed. As an Elwood player remarked after the game, "Those Mishawaka guys are all right, but they run too fast!"

Mishawaka 33, Laporte 6

The Cavemen, fresh from the victory over South Bend, entered the game with a considerably battered line-up and had to fight to down the aggressive Laporte crowd. Treadway, the fast Orange and Black quarterback, gave the M. H. S. rooters heart failure with his accurate passing and the laxness of the Maroon pass defense allowed several of his attempts to be completed for long gains. On the second play of the game Doyle stiff-armed his way for sixty yards and a touchdown, only to have it called back for clipping. This penalty rather took the pep out of the Maroons and the half ended with only a seven-point lead. On the second play of the second half, Doyle repeated his sensational sixty-yard sprint and the extra point was added by Rodgers, who was later removed from the game because of injuries. The game ended with the Cavemen on the long end of a 33-6 score.

Mishawaka 33, Peru 13

The Cavemen sojourned to the downstate circus town and returned a badly battered bunch of warriors. The battling Peruvians put up a terrific scrap but they were clearly out-classed, although the Maroons did not show their usual brand of ball. As the game started rather late, night fell before the end of the third quarter and the last moments of the game, which was called in the middle of the last period, were played in darkness. This proved unlucky for Peru as Horstman, at fullback, got away on a crossbuck for a sixty-yard dash, eluding all tacklers until he was brought down within easy scoring distance just as time was called. Both opponents' touchdowns were made by Fuqua, flashy quarterback. The final score was Mishawaka, 33; Peru, 13.

Mishawaka 7, South Bend 6

The Annual Fight between the Bears and the Cavemen was the grid classic of the state. South Bend at the time, had won all its games, including two conference clashes, and the Maroon and White had duplicated the feat. The Orange and Blue, led by Kintz and Talboon, started a drive from the opening kick-off that culminated in a touchdown by Kintz, who smashed through left tackle and sprinted sixteen yards to the goal line. However, Cordtz failed to add the extra point.

In the second half the Cavemen came back, fighting mad, showing themselves worthy of Coach Steele's teaching. Talboon's fumble, which Rodgers returned into enemy territory, placed the ball within scoring distance and a driving offense, varied by passes thrown by Doyle, Denman and Rodgers, placed the ball behind the Benders' goal early in the fourth quarter. Doyle, who played a wonderful game despite the fact that he had been sick a few days previous, carried the ball over and Rodgers booted the winning point. The Maroons then dropped back on the defensive and successfully foiled all of South Bend's efforts to score. This victory gave Mishawaka an equal claim with Emerson of Gary to the Big Ten title and was the third straight win from the Orange and Blue.

Mishawaka 14, Elkhart 7

The Blue and White warriors of the railroad city, determined to avenge the 54 to 0 defeat handed them by last year's team, fought like Tigers but were finally conquered by the Cavemen in the same manner as the Bears. Bears and Tigers look alike to the Cavemen. Horstman at left half played a great game and crashed seventeen yards in three downs for the first mark of the game. Only fourteen seconds of play were left in the first half when he scored. In the second half the Steelemen went into a series of spread formations and scored before Elkhart woke up to what was happening. A pass from Rodgers to Doyle was responsible for the touchdown. Rodgers converted both extra points. Elkhart came back hard and scored in the fourth quarter, by delayed line plays and wide end runs featuring Hoffman, flashy left halfback. The game ended with the Maroons well on their way to another touchdown.

The Squad

Coach Steele had a wealth of material from which to select his first eleven. The fact that there were twenty-one letter men shows the caliber of this husky group of gridders. They worked as hard in practice as they did in the scheduled games and their fighting spirit was second to none. Beaten in the first half at South Bend, they came back and scrapped their way to victory. Cavemen, we are proud of you!

Front Row—Marcile Lambert, Emerson Denton, Richard Stowell, Franklin Kyle, Charles Conway.
Second Row—Ferris Rudduck, Marvin Keiser, George Leyes.

Monogram Men

THESE ARE THE MEN who, although they did not get into enough games to earn their letters, were the better of the subs. Their grey jerseys were all over the field in practice and they, along with the numeral men, fought like wildcats against the onslaught of the varsity. These men deserve a lot of the credit for the success of the 1926 team.

Front Row—Leo Berry, Robert Kleiser, Stanley Rensberger, Virgil Moneysmith, Jack Klaer, Virgil Chandonia.

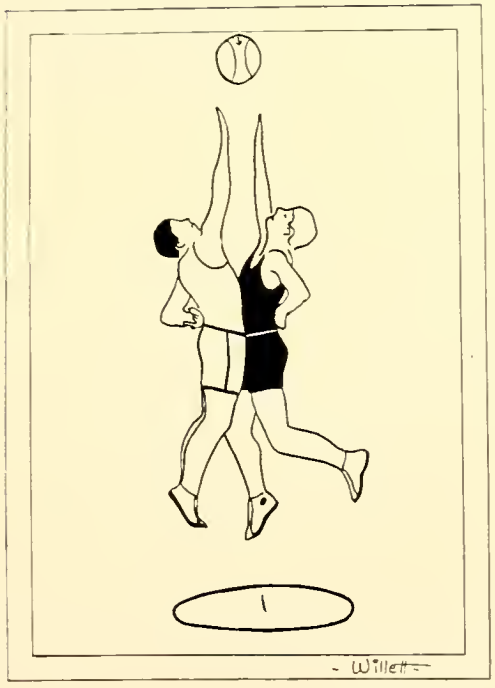
Numeral Men

THESE ARE the boys who came out night after night and stood up gamely to the terrific hammering they received at the hands of the first string. Most of them freshmen, they worked to gain experience and although many of them did not play in a single game they deserve a lot of credit for their gameness and perseverance.

BASKETBALL



COACH SHAKE

Just as Coach Steele made M. H. S. famous for her great grid machines, so has Coach S. S. Shake brought her to the fore in basketball. His record of two sectional and one regional championships in three seasons in something to think about when one considers such opposition as South Bend, Goshen, Elkhart, and Laporte. Also, he has developed five all-regional stars. He is a real M. H. S. man and is a real coach, and we have great hopes that he will be with us for many seasons to come.

Sectional Tournament

Mishawaka vs. South Bend in the finals was the cry. Eleven teams were entered but South Bend and Mishawaka were the class of the tournament. Mishawaka had Knox, Walkerton, and South Bend to beat, before being crowned champ, while South Bend had Lakeville, North Liberty, and Mishawaka for opponents. The dope ran true to form and it was Mishawaka vs. South Bend in the finals. The game was a typical struggle. The "Cavemen" handed their rivals from South Bend the worst defeat ever given in a South Bend-Mishawaka classic. The score was 39-10, making the Cavemen sectional champs.

The Regional Tournament

With "dark horses" to compete with in the regional, the outcome was in doubt. Mishawaka met New Paris, winner of the Elkhart sectional, first and defeated them. Over Kewana, winner of the Rochester sectional and who had previously defeated Bremen, winner of the Plymouth sectional, Mishawaka again triumphed and won the right to compete for the first time at the State.

At "State"

The "Cavemen", starting with 731 teams, were one of the remaining 16 teams to compete for "State" honors. They drew Emerson as their first opponent. Although the "Cavemen" led at the half, the Emerson team came back strong and overcame the lead to win. It was the end of the most successful season Mishawaka has ever had on the hardwood.

DOLL

Captain Cy Himschoot—No greater guard ever graced the hardwood for M. H. S. than did "Cy". His ability as a player, and his qualities of good sportsmanship made him an ideal leader for the first team that Mishawaka ever sent to the "State". "Cy" has been a mainstay for three years and everyone is sorry to see him go.

Al Eminger—"Al" was Cy's running mate at guard. Although he was unable to play in the first few games he came back and resumed his place on the team. "Al", too, is a veteran of three years and will be one of the Seniors missing when the call is given next year.

Ellsworth Doll—"Toad" completed his first year of varsity competition in basketball this year. He was a member of the all-tournament teams. "Toad" was used at the guard positions and was always ready for Coach Shake's call. He will be back next year and great things are expected of him.

GOSBIX

WEIST

HARTZOG

JIMMY GOSBIX—Jimmy was a newcomer to M. H. S. but soon proved his worth by filling the place left by the injury to "Al". He was small, but fast, and a good shot. He, too, is a Junior and will be back next year to bring more laurels to M. H. S.

GORDON WEIST—Weist is another Senior who will be missing next year. This was Weist's second year of varsity competition. He was one of the ten men who represented M. H. S. in the regional and at "State". A willing worker whose efforts were always appreciated, and worthy member of the class of 1927.

BOB HARTZOG—Bob was another one of the first ten to go to "State". He was fast and an exceptional shot, proving his worth in more than one game. He played center, forward, and floor guard with equal ease and was one of the best tip-off men on the squad. We will be sorry to see him go.

DE COOK

DENMAN

Raymond DeCook—Ray, all seetional and regional center, has been a mainstay sinee he made the squad, when a Freshman. His ability to be at the right place at the right time was a joy to all. He was the only Junior on the first team and his presence next year will strengthen the team.

"Frenchy" Denman—"Frenchy" was the smallest man on the first team but proved to his audience that good things often come in small paekages. His ability to hit the hoop when points were needed often brought the fans to their feet. He, too, is a Senior.

BENNETT

KLINE, manager

HAROLD BENNETT—Bennett was one of Coach Shake's best reserve men. He was used at all positions during the year and filled them all to a "king's taste". This is Harold's second year on the varsity and we are sorry to say his last. He is also one of the departing Seniors.

MARK KLINE—Mark was Coach Shake's first assistant during the basketball season, serving in the capacity of student manager. A willing worker who always had an encouraging word for each man. His familiar expression of "Let's go, gang—what do you say", will long be remembered by the team.

Front Row—Lloyd Butz, Cy Himschoot, Ray De Cook, Al Eminger, Burt Doyle.
Second Row—Jimmy Gosbin, Gordon Weist, Bob Hartzog, Toad Doll.
Third Row—Coach Shake.

The Varsity

Sectional and regional champs and Mishawaka's first representatives at the "State tournament". The team that completed a season with sixteen out of twenty games won on the hardest schedule ever played by Mishawaka basketball quintet—with a list of six out of seven wins in tournament competition. A team that lists among its conquered, South Bend, Elkhart, Valparaiso, Auburn, Plymouth, Alexandria, Brazil, Walkerton, Nappanee, Bremen, Kendallville, Kewana, New Paris, Knox, Warsaw, and Laporte. All these fell before the "Cavemen". The season is completed but "Mishawaka's Victory Team" will long be remembered as Mishawaka's greatest representative on the hardwood.

Front Row—Frank Poorman, Joe Dentino, Ray House, Bob House, Jack Michels.
Second Row—Raymond Newcomer, Tony Delio, Don Moore, Cecil Kanouse.

The Reserves

THE SQUAD that made the varsity. Each year there are those who are builders of the varsity. The stronger the reserves, the stronger the varsity. The reserves, or "Shakers", completed the year with a list of fifteen wins to two reverses, a record any team would be proud of. Although in the county tournament they lost to their rivals, South Bend, on the following week they returned the compliment, by leaving the Bears on a short end of the score. Not enough praise can be given to those who worked only for the welfare of the school. All praise to the "Victorious Shakers".

The Review of the Season

Dec. 3—The Cavemen opened their season with a victory over the highly touted Walkerton crew. At no time did Walkerton show the class expected. The game ended, 69-34, with the Maroons on the long end.

Dec. 11—Bremen next fell before the Cavemen by a score of 41-28. This game furnished more action and proved a treat to the fans.

Dec. 17—On their first out-of-town game, the Cavemen won from Plymouth, the home of good basketball teams. The game was full of thrills and now and then a touch of football. The score was 45-34.

Dec. 18—On the following night, Central of Fort Wayne broke the Cavemen's winning streak to the tune of 35-27. The game was close at all times but the Cavemen had an "off night".

Dec. 23.—Next on the schedule was Brazil, who won over Mishawaka last year. The down-staters were unable to cope with the Cavemen and had to be contented with the short end of a score, 43-35.

Dec. 31—The "Red Devils" from Alexandria furnished the next opposition. They, too, are from the southern part of the state. For the second year straight, the Cavemen won. Score, 53-35.

Jan. 7—Starting the year right, the Cavemen triumphed over Auburn. The game was fought on an equal basis for a short time but the Cavemen soon drew away. Score, 44-19.

Jan. 8—On the following night the Cavemen traveled to Valparaiso. Many thought that the Maroons would be unable to cope with the Valpo lads. But with the final gun, the Cavemen had 30 and Valpo 24.

Jan. 14—Doped to beat South Bend by 20 points, the dope bucket was upset. The Bears started on a basket rampage and were never headed. About 5,000 people witnessed the game. Score, South Bend 35, Mishawaka 20.

Jan. 15—With revenge in their hearts, the quintet from Nappanee fell before the "Cavemen". No one witnessing the game on the preceding night would have known that it was the same team who lost to South Bend. Score, Mishawaka 60, Nappanee 38.

Jan. 21—Elkhart, another traditional enemy in both basketball and football, was the next opponent. They offered close competition but were on the short end of the score, 34-23.

Jan. 22—On the following night the Cavemen traveled to Goshen where they met their third defeat of the year. The Crimson gained an early edge and held it throughout the game. Goshen 43, Mishawaka 26.

Jan. 28—Rochester gave the Cavemen the last defeat on the schedule. The game was fought on equal terms. With three minutes to go the score was 29-29. At this time a substitution in the Rochester ranks turned the tide—Rochester 38, Mishawaka 29.

Feb. 5—South Bend again. No dope or overconfidence had anything to do with the outcome. The Cavemen started early and handed the "Bears" a defeat by the same score they had lost by earlier in the season. Mishawaka 35, South Bend 20.

FRANK POORMAN WARREN CURTIS WILLIAM BALL

THESE THREE YELL LEADERS worked hard and faithfully to produce pep at all the games. They have successfully inaugurated the system of having all the yell leaders work as one. Their snap and precision was extraordinary.

FEB. 11—Bremen at Bremen next. A closer game than many expected was the result. It was only in the last eight minutes that the "Cavemen" drew away. Score, Mishawaka 32, Bremen 20.

FEB. 12—Kendallville was the host on the following evening and was defeated by the Cavemen. Kendallville is the home of Prentice, winner of the Kimball prize at the State tournament. In this game he sank eight field goals. Score, Mishawaka 49, Kendallville 32.

FEB. 18—At Elkhart the "Blue" offered little opposition. Most of the thrills being furnished by the second teams of the two institutions. Score, Mishawaka 39, Elkhart 14.

FEB. 19—With straight victories for five years the quintet from Laporte, came, saw, and were defeated. Although at the half the Cavemen trailed, they came back strong and out-fought and out-played their opponents. Score, Mishawaka 34, Laporte 25.

FEB. 22—Lakeville furnished the last home game before the tournaments. Coach Shake used his whole squad, thus getting a line on tournament men. Score, Mishawaka 72, Lakeville 14.

FEB. 25—The Cavemen finished their season with a victory over Warsaw. The game was fast with the Cavemen holding the edge. Score, Mishawaka 31, Warsaw 27.

Seniors—Interclass Champions

First Row—Bert Riley, Bill Renner, Laurel Johnson, Bob Emmons, Herman Weber, Don Rodgers, Don Thompson, Warren Curtis.
Second Row—Bob Hartzog.

Track

The season of 1927 was the second year in which Mishawaka has had a track team. The handicap of not having a cinder track to practice on added greatly to the difficulty of developing an efficient squad, but the untiring work of Coaches Shake and Steele and the willingness of the boys to work brought results and the team was much better than could be expected. Although Mishawaka did not win any meets, the points amassed by her thinly clads exceeded by far the last year's points.

The half-mile relay team consisting of Captain Hartzog, Long, Kreiter and Davis won the sectional meet at South Bend and earned the right to represent Mishawaka at the state meet, held at Arsenal Technical of Indianapolis. In the last meet of the season, held May 24 and 25, both the half mile and the mile relay teams won from South Bend on Eddy Field. They were awarded loving cups. The mile team was composed of Captain Hartzog, Michels, DeCook, and Weist.

Mishawaka was ably represented on the cinder path by Captain Hartzog, Long and Davis in the hundred and two-twenty yard dashes; by Weist and DeCook in the quarter; by Michels and Rudduck in the half; and by Christianson and Gosbin in the mile run.

In the field events, Emmons, Doll, and House did the pole-vaulting; Emmons, Hartzog and House, the high jumping; and Hartzog, R. House and B. House, the broad jumping. Himschoot and Doll were our weight men. Handicapped by lack of facilities, we were unable to specialize in hurdling, but Cerri and Simmons in the low, and Himschoot in the high hurdles, showed wonderful possibilities, lacking only finished development.

An inter-class meet was held in which varsity men were allowed to compete, with the Seniors winning by 57½ points. The Juniors came a close second with 54½ points.

Tennis

Mishawaka High School's tennis team of 1927 was composed of such material as: Stein, Lambert, Ostrom, Renner, Dutenhaver, Waidner, and Elliot. In each of these seven men there is an abundance of valuable material, and much is expected of them in the coming matches.

Up to the present time, only two matches have been played. One with Elkhart, who completely defeated our maroon racquet wielders, and the other being Goshen, our first meet at home. Goshen was overcome by our boys, who won every series played. It is believed that with practice M. H. S. will have one of the best tennis teams around here.

An elimination tournament was held early in the season and the best suited were picked for the team.

Stein and Renner are Seniors and we dread the loss of these boys, as both play a good brand of ball on the courts. Waidner and Dutenhaver are only Freshmen, but how those boys can play tennis. Lambert and Ostrom are Juniors and are out doing their best to win every match possible. Elliot is a Sophomore on the team, and a valuable player.

These aspirants were coached by Coach Steele and Kenneth Ball. Kenneth was ineligible this year, but will be with us next year. These two coaches were out every night showing the boys strokes, instructions in serving and the psychology of the game.

The whole school is behind the boys, and we heartily wish them a most successful season.

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

Front Row—Marcella Finch, Mildred Poorman, Mary Grace Ball, Lois Gosbin.
Second Row—Hope Myers, Doris Eberhart, Mary Boenlein, Erma Dentino, Mary Weber, Dorothy May.
Third Row—Eleanore Stutzman, Dorothy Eberhart, Vera Jewell, Leola Miller.

Hockey

It has been said that Freshman are green; however, it surely didn't prevent their "copping" the hockey championship of 1926. The Sophomore, Junior, and Senior teams offered plenty of competition, but the "infants" marched straight onward to victory, scrambling through each game, landing beamingly on top. Let's join forces and place one star in the crown of the triumphant Freshmen.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL CHAMPIONS

Second Row—Veola Areta, Ruth Harrington, Miss Newhafer, Thelma Funk, Harriet Ellsasser.

Basketball

NEVER in the history of M. H. S. girls' athletics has such interest been shown in basketball. Seventy girls responded to the call for interclass while around one hundred and twenty-five came out for the color tournament.

In the interclass scramble for championship, many a close game was played only to result in disappointment for one side—naturally!

The most heart-rending game—for the Seniors, at least, was the game played to break the tie between the Juniors and Seniors. With death-like precision, the under-class men netted their way to victory, and championship.

Miss Newhafer cannot be praised too highly for her good work in connection with basketball, for if those who played failed to absorb any basketball knowledge they at least learned sportsmanship.

Volleyball

What? No champions? Well, what kind of a tournament was this? To tell you the truth it was so good that one team was not great enough to dominate the rest. Three games were played between the four classes. At first the Seniors seemed to have a grasp on the championship, but the Juniors, whom the Sophomores had defeated, beat the Seniors, 25-26, thus leaving the championship undecided.

Track

Bright, indeed, was the "green" on May 16, when the Freshmen girls surpassed the upper-classmen in the field events. Dorothy May was the outstanding athlete on the field, adding points to the Freshmen score and playing a lone hand.

The Juniors followed a very close second, failing to win the meet by missing three points.

Next came the Sophomores and then the Seniors, who for the first time in girls' track history failed to do anything.

1927 ushered in a new idea in track by combining the boys' meet with the girls' and settling the championship by combining the points won by each class team.

The Senior boys succeeded in making enough points without the girls' help to win the inter-class championship for the Seniors, thus allowing them the honor of having their names engraved for the first time on the new inter-class championship cup.

Baseball

Just another championship for the Juniors, the class of '28.

This year the Seniors failed to have a team, so of course it was up to the Juniors to get the championship, and they did.

The members of the winning team are:

Ruth Harrington, Virginia Gilliland, Evelyn Hixon, Edna Rauch, Freda Kurtz, Helen Prahl, Freda Feldman, Viola Arata, Pauline Eckenburger, Ruth Hose, Leora May Kaufman.

The Juniors are proud to think they only had to make thirteen runs in their games to win. They were nicknamed the "Lucky Thirteen."

The schedule for the season:

Freshmen 6, Sophomores 23.

Juniors 13, Freshmen 12.

Juniors 13, Sophomores 11.

THE MOTHER'S CLUB of the Mishawaka High School was organized in January, 1926. The organization consists of sixty-two members who meet the second Monday in the month. The aim of the club is to co-operate with the coaches and the faculty to help make better, cleaner boys and athletes, who will play a square game, not only in athletics but in every-day life.

We hope that the endeavors of this club will be fulfilled successfully for it is truly a high school organization.

The Home Economics club is another of the new organizations. There is a large number of members, anyone taking or having credits in the Economics course being eligible for membership.

The purpose of this club is to create interest, and help students interested in economics.

Under the direction of Miss Sasse and the other teachers of that department, the club has been quite a success.

A very interesting and helpful style show was given before the student body, in which the students in the clothing courses displayed their work.

Meetings are held every month and special plans are made for getting interesting instruction in the line of economics.

OUR GOVERNMENT "SEAT" is located in the Board of Control. Here the teachers and students and other school officials meet and plan to regulate and finance the various school activities and projects.

There are representatives from each class, Senior, Junior, Sophomore, and Freshman and also from each of the organizations of the school. It is a means of bringing the students and faculty closer together. Rules and regulations are made fairly and plans for making and spending money are discussed and formed. This form of co-operation has done much to promote the welfare of the school.

Due to Miss Kolb's untiring efforts, the music department has developed in various ways. One feature of the department is the Etude club. It began as a music appreciation class and was organized into a club.

There are ten members, united for the purpose of arousing more interest, enthusiasm, and appreciation of good music. They study the development of music from the earliest stage to the most modern; also the works, character, lives, and other interesting facts about the great musicians and composers. They studied the symphony orchestra and each of the instruments and their developments.

The members have visited the churches in Mishawaka and South Bend to see the pipe organs.

The Commercial club is something similar to the Engineering club in that it promotes interest and helps students in planning their work. The program is planned to provide a mixture of pleasure and instruction.

The club gave a vodevil for the purpose of sending representatives to the state commercial contest.

The commercial contests are new, and more interest and enthusiasm is aroused each year. In 1924, 1925 and 1927, Mishawaka won the district meets. This victory gave the winners the opportunity to take part in the state contest. Three teams and two individuals were sent to Muncie.

Ola May Rogers won first place in the state novice typewriting; and the team composed of Ola May, Evelyn Went, and Elizabeth Dentino, won third place.

Rosemary Regula won first place in amateur typewriting. The team, including Rosemary, Leone Kelley, and Bessie Killefer, won first place.

The beginning bookkeeping team also made a very fine showing by winning third place in the state with a total of 430 points as against 431 for second and 438 for first. On this team were, Ola May Rogers, Marjorie Parrett, and Gladys Southworth. Marjorie placed second in the state in this event.

The sponsors of the club are: Miss Buchanan, Miss Parvis, Miss Rundell, and Mr. Amos.

This is one of the few organizations of M. H. S. The purpose of it is much different than that of most clubs, for it tries to help boys who are interested in the various trades to find some occupation for which they are fitted.

Two principles of the club are to promote interest in technical mechanical knowledge, and to provide a method for getting in touch with practical affairs of world work.

The club is well organized and does some very helpful work. They have regular meetings with various instructive and helpful features. There is also a social side of the club, and this year they gave a very successful party.

Much credit is due Mr. Sprague who has done much to make the club a success. With such an organization, Mishawaka should be aided much in the commercial world.

VERY SELDOM do we find that the high school students have an opportunity to discuss the various public questions, but this is not true in Mishawaka. Mr. Chapman had a very good plan to provide such an opportunity and the Wranglers' club was the outcome of this plan.

Its purpose is to interest the students in public affairs and then give them a chance to give their views and state and discuss the various sides of the questions. This also serves as excellent practice for students in public speaking.

Meetings are held twice a month, and a variety of entertainment is planned.

Is LATIN A DEAD LANGUAGE? It may be in some schools, but due to the Mercurius staff, it is far from dead in M. H. S. These students have published the Mercurius, a Latin paper. It has created much interest among Latin classes, and also proved quite useful and helpful. All of the students look forward to its publication with interest and impatience.

Much credit is due Miss Wyland as well as the staff for their very successful attempt to "bring Latin back to life."

Board of Control ..... John McIntyre

The Hi-Y Club is an organization in M. H. S. about which very little is known. If the students knew more about it they would value it much more highly and hope that it would grow to be a powerful club in the school. It is a means of promoting social fellowship.

Do you know what "Hi-Y" means? This is a sort of junior organization of the Y. M. C. A. and it carries out the same plan and purpose only it is planned for high school boys. Instead of calling it the High School Young Men's Christian Association, they have shortened the name to just Hi-Y.

It is a representative group of boys. There are just twelve members in M. H. S. The organization has not been active for several years until this year. They have done much for the school and will, no doubt, continue to do more if they are encouraged.

One of the outstanding features is the meaning of the four C's—the ideals of the club. These four C's stand for:

Clean Speech. Clean Scholarship.
Clean Sport. Clean Habits.

First Row—J. D. Howlett, Warren Jones, Miss Kolb, Melvin Keiser, Lewis Weiss.
Second Row—Lloyd Webster, Paul Culp, Warren Curtis, Paul Wray, Bernard Seaman, Houston Baker.
Others who are not in the picture—John Eberhart, Robert Emmons, Marvin Keiser, Thomas Kerr, Owen LaMonde, Howard Long, Paul McFaul, Thomas Orr, Conrad Roberts, Milton Walton, Rolland Ward, Alvin Melser, William Ball.

Boys' Glee Club

We have, not only a girls' but also, an excellent boys' Glee club. It is much larger the second semester than it was the first. They have sung on numerous occasions before the Masque, First Lutheran church, and the East Mishawaka church.

A quartette has been formed, composed of Howard Long, Warren Jones, Marvin Keiser, and Houston Baker.

First Row—Donnabelle Simper, Mary Kathryn Vawter, Helen Mason, Lucille Samson, Florence Schnoll, Elizabeth Stearns, Virginia Kabel, Ruth McKay, Lucille Phillion, Helen Mae Jernegan, Mildred Tyler.

Second Row—Sylvia Moore, Angeline Raab, Frances Martin, Mariette Graves, Betty Myers, Mary Nolt, Frances Moore, Vera Jewel, Frances McAfee, Kathryn Suders.

Third Row—Mary Mills, Nell Huston, Lavina Martin, Mary Hunter, Pauline Rupe, Miss Kolb, Dorothea Sheibly, Gladys Moore, Ruth Hose, Marcella Finch, Marjorie Spear.

Girls' Glee Club

THE MUSIC DEPARTMENT is so well developed in all lines that one group stands out as much as the other for its accomplishments. The Girls' Glee club has been another source of enjoyment. They have sung several times before the assembly, and they have given concerts at Osceola. A division of the Glee club is the double-trio, which has been heard frequently.

The Boys' and Girls' Glee clubs combined gave several entertainments. Early in the fall a minstrel show was given before the assembly. It was very good, and was enjoyed by the students because it was something quite unusual. The opera, "Pinafore", was given in the spring. This organization also furnished part of the music for the P. T. A. convention in April, and took part in one of the programs of National Music week.

Orchestra

"The Play's the thing", but what would our plays and many other things be at M. H. S. without our orchestra? M. H. S. is especially proud of its excellent orchestra this year. Under the direction of Miss Kolb it has proved a great success. On many and varied occasions the orchestra has been a delightful source of entertainment and enjoyment.

Another feature is the dance orchestra. This has been especially helpful in the parties and dances at school. It is made up of eight members, Don Burkhart, Lexie Hamilton, Violet Shipman, Ellsworth Sims, Mildred Shroyer, Fred Shultz, Bernard Seaman, and Miss Kolb.

The aim of the orchestra is to have ready at all times music of all kinds for all occasions, for the benefit of the school and community. The orchestra certainly has been very successful in carrying out its aim, and it is appreciated by all.

Girls' Athletic League

OFFICERS

President ..... ALMA HUNT

Vice President ..... LEONE KELLEY

Secretary-Treasurer ..... EDNA ROUCH

FROM THE BEGINNING of hockey season until the close of track, this organization has been in the front line as far as pep and enthusiasm was concerned.

The league is conducted on a point system basis, the points being given to the girls who make the various teams. Four hundred points are required for the numeral award, eight hundred points for the M award, and one thousand points for the sweater.

A girl cannot possibly earn her sweater, under the present plan, unless she has spent four years working for it. Three were given this year at the annual G. A. L. banquet, to Bertha Denslow, Leone Kelley, and Virginia Gilliland.

Much excitement was aroused this year over athletics. Pep? Yes, we certainly did have it. And as for success, we need not dwell long on that subject. Back of all this success there is one very important feature, the band. What would our football games have been without the band? It certainly was a great help in the beginning of a game to see the band, clad in maroon and white, parade around the field. This sight did much to create "pep".

The band, although a comparatively new feature of the school, has developed rapidly and has been very successful. They were present at almost all of the football games and many of the basketball games. Their loyalty to M. H. S. cannot be overlooked.

With Mr. Wood's help, the band was able to put on a very successful concert, which is getting to be an annual event.

We appreciate the spirit the band has showed and its loyalty to M. H. S.

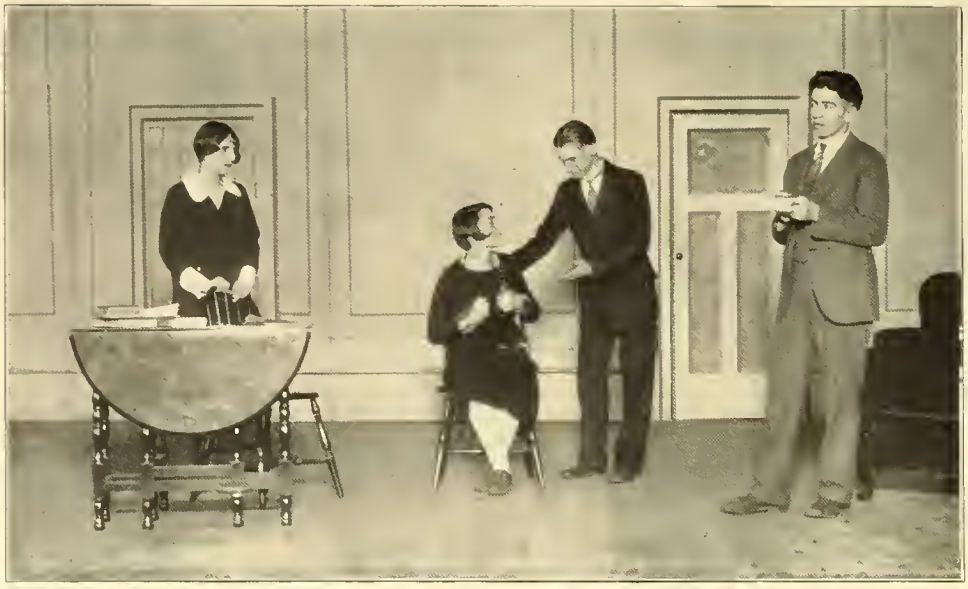
Activities

DRAMATICS



The Stepmother

The Sophomore class won for itself a lasting dramatic reputation when it presented three one-act plays, Thursday evening, February 17, in the high school auditorium. The first play, which was coached by Miss Kolb, was entitled "The Stepmother" and included the following characters:

The Cast

Mrs. Prout	Lucille Philion
Adrian	Richard Coesens
Christine Feversham	Catherine Suders
Dr. Gardner	Lawrence Wilson

Each played his part well, and showed dramatic talent.

Red Carnations

The second play, and probably the most humorous, was entitled "Red Carnations", coached by Miss Little. It involved three characters:

The Cast

The original Smith	Robert Elliot
Mr. Smith	Stanley Rosenstein
Miss Smith	Helen Bradly

Much credit is due Robert Elliot and Stanley Rosenstein for the portrayal of their parts, and their clever lines furnished much amusement to the audience.

The Man in the Bowler Hat

The last play presented was a mixed-up affair called "The Man in the Bowler Hat", directed by Miss Moist. The cast of characters was:

The Cast

Hero	John Baluss
Heroine	Pansy Kittredge
Bad Men	Carl Putman and William Biron
The Man in the Bowler Hat	Albert Smith
Husband and Wife	Georgia Wiley and Floyd Frances

Many laughs were extracted from the audience in this play, and the unexpected climax was "thrilling". Much credit is due the coaches of these plays, and M. H. S. is looking forward to a dramatic Junior play next year, judging from these.

The Lottery Man

The Junior class delighted the students of M. H. S. when it presented its annual play entitled "The Lottery Man." It was very well given, having none of the usual "hitches", common to amateur plays.

The plot centers around a young man, Jack Wright, Marvin Keiser, who, in order to get some money, sells chances on himself, intending to marry the girl who draws the "lucky" number. A great many comical incidents arise out of this circumstance, and poor Jack is almost exhausted by the close of the contest. However, to the chagrin of the "lottery man", the "lucky" girl turns out to be an old maid, "Lizzie Roberts", Marian Shamo. After a lot of trouble in arguing "Lizzie" out of it, Jack marries the girls he loves, Helen Hayes, Ruth Hildebrand, and keeps a large share of the money besides.

The rest of the cast was as follows:

The Cast

Mrs. Wright	Beatrice Richardson
Foxey Peyton	Albert Pighi
Stevens	Robert Fitzsimmons
Mrs. Peyton	Emily Blanford
Hedwig Jensen	Ruth Harrington
Hamilton	James Hupp

All the parts were portrayed exceptionally well and the whole play was amusing throughout the three acts. Miss Stearns coached the presentation and was largely responsible for its success.

"The Show Off"

For the last time, the class of '27 displayed its dramatic talent in a successful and clever comedy, "The Show Off", written by George Kelley and given on May 11 and 12. Not only was it excellently presented, but it contained fine bits of acting on the parts of the east members. Warren Curtis, who took the leading role of Aubrey Piper, the "show off", repeated his success of the Junior play last year. His acting and splendid voice were outstanding features of the play, and greatly determined its success.

Lois Webster as Aubrey's wife, Amy, also portrayed her part unusually well, and acted the part of the "adoring" wife typically.

Alma Hunt as Mrs. Fisher, not only extracted many laughs from her audience, but displayed remarkable ability for taking a character role. Her appearance and voice were features of her part.

Helen Fry as Clara Hyland, and Donald Hoffman as her nonchalant husband made an amusing pair, and added "spice" to the play.

Bob Emmons, as Mr. Fisher, Alma's husband, and Robert Hartzog as Mr. Gill, the burly mechanic, were equally as good.

Don Rodgers as Joe Fisher, the rising inventive son of Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, and Clarence Futter alias Mr. Rogers, the insurance agent, acted their parts very well, helping to make the play a huge success.

Because the cast included some new members this year, it was doubly interesting to the audience, and the Senior class was proud of them. To Miss Duguid, who coached the play, goes a great deal of the credit, and her ability as a director cannot be doubted.

Learning to Ride a Bicycle

Cycling along on the quiet, pleasant highways on a balmy August evening is one of the most peaceful and recreative exercises imaginable. Yet to fully enjoy this pleasure, you must first go through the painful ordeal of learning how.

After three months of coaxing and two months of being a good boy, my father consented to buy me a new bicycle. It was a gorgeous wheel, bright orange with wide purple stripes. I determined to have a try at it at once.

Father held it and I got on it. Elation! My! Why, I was the proudest boy in the whole city and both the suburbs. I grasped the handle bars somewhat in the manner I used to hold the reins when riding Nellie, our horse. Father gave a shove and I was "off". "Off" is right, although I didn't get "off" right. I took my first "Prince of Wales" in a manner so graceful I am sure it would have made him envious.

They say success is the product of honest endeavors. I tried, and tried, and tried! I climbed two trees and four fences, and ran into nine men and one woman. I was what might be called a cross-word rider. I started vertical and ended horizontal.

The town marshal forbade me to ride in the city. So I pushed my wheel to the top of a hill just outside the city limits, and started down. It was all fine until I came to a turn in the road. That bicycle certainly wasn't a crook, for it would only go straight. It went straight across Farmer Jones' melon patch, straight through his corn field, and straight into the river. Luckily, I could swim. The bicycle couldn't.

When I got home, we had company. There was father, vainly trying to settle claims made against me by Farmer Jones, the four men whose fences I had damaged, the nine men and one woman I had injured, and all their lawyers saying that it was entirely accidental and that I could never be allowed to ride a bicycle again.

I must repeat, cycling is one of the most quiet, peaceful exercises imaginable, for I was full of pieces when I got through applying enough pieces of adhesive tape to the injuries I incurred cycling.

A Good Rest

I GREW TIRED of the hurrying world, its noises and artificial beauty. The hot, dusty air from the dry streets was no pleasure to breathe. I left and went into the cool green woods which gave rest to my whole being. The fragrant odor of the wild flowers, the spicy gusts of fresh warm air, the pink, yellow, and blue hues of the happy flowers, the patches of soft green moss, the murmur of the wind in the tall sturdy trees, the flitting of the frightened birds that were singing among the branches, and the crackling of the dry twigs beneath my tired feet; all these sights, sounds, and sensations blended together into one harmonious peace as I rested a while near a cluster of flowers. They were of dainty variety, a pretty pink and white color. A wild bird, seeing everything quiet about me, soon came cautiously back to the branches overhead and continued sis interrupted song. If I could only understand what he was singing, I would probably learn the key to his happiness, for he surely expressed a great overflowing of joy in his warble. All nature seemed to share it with him, even I.

When I left the woods with all its beauties, did I feel sorry to do so? No, those happy thoughts and pleasant sensations stayed with me in my newly rested mind which was now ready for the problems of the world.

Alma Mater

Sweet be thy memory, High School of ours.
Fair be thy destiny, fadeless thy flowers.
Hearts that have loved thee have won in life's fight:
Names that we honor, thy standards hold bright.

Our Alma Mater dear, to thee we sing.
May all thy future years new honors bring.
May friends thy banners raise, thy foes grow less.
All love and praise to our old M. H. S.

Presented by G. A. L., '27.

A Smile at M. H. S.

A smile—Yes, they're everywhere;
Although sometimes they seem quite rare;
Don't wear a grouch, or try to smile with a frown,
You're never out until you're down.

A smile—for some, may be hard to give,
But with a smile, it's fun to live;
It's true, it is a priceless jewel,
But it doesn't cost a fortune here at school.

Just try real hard, tho' it's not much work,
It's your duty to smile, so don't try to shirk;
Walk down the hall, and crack a smile
I'll guarantee it worth your while.

And then walk on, way down the hall;
Miss not one, smile at 'em all;
Smiles are catching, that's nothing new,
So wear a smile whatever you do.

Walk down farther, and when someone comes whom you detest;
You know you've got to smile, 'cause she, too, is from M. H. S.
And after she passes, you'll say, she's not so bad;
Maybe to walk and dress like that is just a regular fad.

But then, oh sure! It had'da end;
Here comes that mean old teacher;
But be in style and wear your smile
And you'll find she's not a bad feature.

Now take my advice—don't write this on ice—
This is to be short—and very concise.
Wear a continuous smile, one that never ends.
And you'll find all the while
You've got many good friends. . . .

Alltold Matinee Dance

For all those students who paid their Alltold subscription on time, a dance was given in the gym on Wednesday, September 30. A comparatively large number attended, and all had a good time. This was the first dance of the school year and the music was furnished by Marvin Keiser, Fred Schultz, Robert Burkhardt and Howard Rohleder.

Economic Club Halloween Party

Saturday evening, October 29, saw the first party of the year, given by the Home Economics Club, a new organization of the school. It was in the form of a mask, and unique stunts were enjoyed. Miss Kolb's orchestra made its first appearance and proved successful.

Juniors' Jolly Jumble

What? When? Where?

The first Junior party of the year was held Friday evening, November 5, in the high school cafeteria. A grand march, in which the formation of the letter "J" was unique, and readings by Miss Heggaton constituted the program. Dancing was enjoyed throughout the evening, in which the "Moonlight Syncopators" furnished the music. All had a fine time!"

Commercial Club Dance

The peppiest party of the year took the form of a dance given by the Commercial Club for all participating in the Commercial Club Vodvil. "Rob" dances constituted a great deal of fun, and the "Harmony Kings' Orchestra" furnished the music. Punch and wafers were enjoyed. The party was on Friday evening, November 19.

Senior Feetsball Hop

A novel dance was given by the Seniors, Wednesday evening, November 24, in the cafeteria. It took the form of a football celebration and the decorations were in keeping with the occasion. The refreshments consisted of cider and doughnuts. The "Harmony Kings' Orchestra" furnished music for the dancing. All had a fine peppy time.

Engineering Club Party

The Engineering Club gave a fine party in the gym Friday evening, December 10. Stunts and singing were enjoyed. Music was furnished by the "Harmony Kings' Orchestra". Ice cream and cake formed a delightful finale to the affair, and all went home happily at 10:30.

Senior Party

A Valentine party was given by the Juniors Friday night, February 11. Each guest was presented with a small heart on which was a number. By these numbers each person found his partner for the grand march which followed. Miss Kolb's orchestra furnished the music, and refreshments consisted of apple. Fortunately, the class made some money this time. Success!!

Sweet Sixteen Dance

The Alltold staff delightfully entertained dance lovers at a unique matinee dance in the music room Wednesday afternoon, February 16. It was sponsored by 16 journalists on the 16th, for 16 cents. It proved a huge success and the net proceeds amounted to $16.16. Miss Kolb's orchestra furnished the music.

Matinee Dance

George Washington's birthday was duly celebrated Wednesday afternoon, February 23, by a matinee dance given by the Seniors in the music room. Miss Kolb's orchestra played, and a nice crowd enjoyed an hour and a half of peppy dancing. Money in the treasury!

Sophomore Party

The Sophomore class had its annual party in the cafeteria, December 5. A good number was present, and the evening was pleasantly spent in games and dancing. Keep it up, Sophs!

Senior Party

An April fool party for all the "school fools" was given by the Seniors, April 1, in the gym. Miss Kolb's orchestra furnished the music for dancing, and for the first time that we can remember, everyone danced.

Commercial Dance

For all the visiting commercial contestants, and for all the students of M. H. S., a dance was given in the gym, Saturday afternoon, April 23. Miss Kolb's orchestra furnished the music, and Houston Baker clogged. Everyone agreed that the visitors were shown a good peppy time. (No admission was charged.)

Junior Prom

The annual prom given by the Juniors in honor of the Seniors was held in the high school cafeteria, Saturday evening, June 4. Lavender in various shades was the predominant color in the decorations, and furnished a beautiful sight. At six-thirty, dinner was served, at which time the Junior and Senior toasts were given. Many clever and amusing speeches were enjoyed to the music of Kilties Orchestra. A grand march was a special feature of the evening, and gaiety prevailed.

All agree that the Seniors were royally entertained, thanks to the Juniors.

Where the Big Jobs are Poured

Giant sheaves, massive pillow blocks, miles of conveyor rolls and the host of other special jobs that pass through the Dodge Shops every year require engineering experience of the highest order and the best of mechanical facilities.

Manufacturers everywhere find that Dodge qualifies on both counts. They look upon Dodge as their logical source of supply for special built-to-order machinery, material-handling equipment as well as for their power-transmitting appliances.

Humor

Stanley Niles: "It was a ghostly night in a morgue, and suddenly—"

Art Johnson: "Yes, yes, go on—"

Stanley: "I heard a corpse coffin."

* * *

Johnny's grandma lived with his family, and it was her constant complaint that the house was too cold for her. All father's efforts were fruitless, so Johnny turned to heaven for aid.

"God bless mamma and papa," he prayed, "and make me a good boy—and oh, dear Lord, please make it hot for grandma!"

* * *

Little high school boy (entering library): "Got Lamb?"

Librarian: "No."

Boy: "Well, then, give me Bacon."

* * *

Tommie Stowell: "I bought a tube of shaving cream and on the box it say, "No mug required. What shall I do?"

* * *

The colonists all sailed down the river singing, "Show Me the Way to Go Home."

* * *

Flip: "Gee, that building is the nuts, isn't it?"

Flop: "Sure, it's the state insane asylum."

* * *

No, Houston, girls don't play soccer with their hose.

* * *

Burks (phoning down from his hotel room): "Night clerk?"

Snippy Clerk: "Well, what's bitin' you?"

Burks: "That's what I want to know."

* * *

So you are the sole survivor of the shipwreck? Tell me how you came to be saved.

Well, you see, I missed the boat.

* * *

Miss Beckman: "Stanley, did you find out the remainder of the proverb beginning, 'Man proposes—' as I told you?"

Stanley Niles: "Yes'm. I asked sister and she said it was: "Man proposes, but he needs a lot of encouragement."

* * *

A student failed in an examination in all five subjects he took.

He telegraphed a brother: "Failed in all five. Prepare papa."

The brother telegraphed back: "Papa prepared. Prepare yourself."

* * *

"Pretty soft," said Bill Ball, as he scratched his head.

Miss Duguid: "What poem did Tennyson write about the knights?"

John McIntyre: "Ten Knights in a Bar Room."

* * *

"I got a hunch—"

"Really? I thought you were just round-shouldered."

* * *

Mr. Chapman (telling his history class the nicknames of the people of various states): "The people of South Carolina are called 'tar heels'; those of Ohio, 'Buckeyes'; of Maine, What?"

Don Hoffman: "Maniacs."

* * *

It is said that Mr. Broman never stole anything, but we all know he once hooked a front door!

* * *

Gladys West: "What's the difference between a hair dresser and a sculptor?"

Winifred Williamson: "A hair dresser curls up and dyes, while a sculptor makes faces and busts."

* * *

John: "I was busy looking at the chicken."

Bob: "Which one? That one on the platter, or the one walking?"

* * *

He: "My, that's good-smelling perfume you have on. What is it?"

She: "Oh, that's Coty's 'Sheep'."

He (holding up arm): "Smell that sleeve."

She: "Heavens. What is that odor?"

He: "That's Murphy's goat."

* * *

Dewey: "Toad, what are you going to be when you get out of high school?"

"Toad" Doll: "An old, old man."

* * *

Little Archie: "Gee, Pop, I just swallowed a worm!"

Anxious father: "Take a drink of water quick, and wash it down."

Archie: "Aw, no. Let him walk."

* * *

"Mother," said Johnny, "is it correct to say you water a horse when he's thirsty?"

"Yes, quite correct."

"Then" (picking up a saucer), "I'm going to milk the cat."

* * *

Mr. Chapman: "Don, what was the result of the Whiskey Rebellion?"

Don Rodgers: "The Era of Good Feeling."

The world bestows its big prizes in both money and honors for but one thing. And that is Initiative. What is Initiative? I'll tell you.

It is doing the right thing without being told, but next to doing the right thing without being told, is do it when you are told once.

Next, there are those who never do a thing until they are told twice; such get no honors and small pay.

Next, there are those who do the right thing only when necessity kicks them from behind, and they get indifference instead of honors and a pittance for pay. This kind spends most of its time polishing a bench with hard luck stories.

Then still lower down in the scale than this, we have the fellow who will not do the right thing even when some one goes along and stays to see that he does it. He, is always out of a job and receives the contempt that he deserves, unless he happens to have a rich Dad, in which case Destiny patiently awaits around the corner with a stuffed club.

To which class do you belong?

—Elbert Hubbard.

Member "Heart of Value" Stores

This store has been selected from among many Northern Indiana stores to become a member of the "Heart of Value" stores organization, a co-operative buying group of more than 600 of the better department stores of the country, with a combined purchasing power of many millions of dollars annually. Through the co-operation of this large buying group many decidedly unusual values are offered at definite savings to patrons of this store, as well as being first in the community showing the newest of all new merchandise.

Miss Duguid: "John, you may leave the room."

John McIntyre: "I didn't intend to take it with me."

* * *

Miss Kolb: "What wind instrument do you play?"

Paul Culp: "The electric fan."

* * *

Mr. Chapman: "And where was Sheridan when he took his famous ride?"

Harry Fulmer: "On a horse."

* * *

"Mother, may I go out to play?"

"What? With those holes in your pants?"

"No, with the kids across the street."

* * *

The Civil War

They captured six negroes with Union suits on.

* * *

Mr. Smith: "Have you done any outside reading yet, John?"

John Miller: "No, sir. I do not wear red flannels, and it has been too cold outside."

* * *

Miss Heimbach: "Robert, your pink slip?"

Bob Emmons: "I don't wear one."

* * *

Miss Wyland: "I didn't know profanity was so prevalent until I drove a car."

Mr. Broman: "Do you hear much of it on the road?"

Miss W.: "Yes, nearly everyone I bump into swears dreadfully."

* * *

"Did you 'ear that Mrs. Jones won a vacuum cleaner in a competition?"

"No, did she?"

"Yes, but she says it ain't no good to her. She ain't got no vacuums."

* * *

Mr. Abbott was learning French, and one night, returning home after a dinner, he said to his wife, "Je t'adore."

To his astonishment, she replied, "Shut it yourself!"

* * *

Mildred: "Just think, the material for this dress cost ten dollars a yard."

Gordon: "Oh, well, it's a nice dress for fifty cents."

* * *

Mr. Webster: "When Abe Lincoln was your age he was making his own living."

Lloyd: "Yes, and when he was your age he was president."

* * *

Farmer: "Come on, and I'll show you how to milk a cow."

James Hupp: "Maybe I'd better start in on a calf."

Helen Fry: "I made this cake all by myself."

Robert Hartzog: "I can understand that, but who helped you lift it out of the oven?"

* * *

Harry F.: "Well, I showed up the teacher before the whole class today."

Don H.: "How?"

Harry: "He asked me for Lincoln's Gettysburg address and I had to tell him he never lived there. You should have heard the class laugh then."

* * *

Sweet young thing: "Basil says he worships the very ground I stand on."

Rejected suitor: "I don't blame him. A farm of that size is not to be sneezed at."

* * *

R. Kreiter: "I could dance like this forever."

Opal A.: "Oh, no, you're bound to improve."

* * *

F. Denman: "I wish Napoleon had been a Russian."

Nellie: "Why?"

Francis: "Because that's what I wrote on my test paper."

* * *

Mrs. Rensberger was taking her young son, Stanley, out to dinner one night, and had spent the afternoon impressing upon his fresh, young mind the necessity of being polite to his hostess.

While the soup was being consumed, Stanley, anxious to show his mastery of the art of compliments, smiled indulgently and said to the hostess, "This is good soup—what there is of it."

A glare from his mother rewarded him. "And there's plenty of it," he hastened to add, "such as it is!"

* * *

Mr. Chapman: "What act passed by England stuck with the colonies?"

Bert Riley: "The Molasses Act."

* * *

Bob Hartzog (in library): "May I take 'The Girl of the Limberlost' out over the week-end?"

* * *

Carl Meyerhaefer came into English class bursting with news: "You know Frank Poorman," he began. "Well, he 'et' seven hot dogs this noon."

"Ate," corrected Miss Heimbach.

"Oh, I thought it was seven," replied Carl.

* * *

Muriel W.: "Did you hear about the raid in the library?"

Harriet E.: "No."

Muriel: "They found whiskey in the dictionary."

Miss Ulrey: "Now, class, we will name some of the lower animals beginning with Lloyd Webster."

* * *

Don: "Just then my shotgun let out a roar, and there lay a dead rabbit ahead of me."
Marian: "How many days had it been dead?"
